

I will be here

How much longer will I expect you to sample Spring with all your senses and don't let summer pass with the ripe fruits ready to fall...

You don't understand the haste of time...

But, I will be here and I will wait for you no matter how long you need to complete your zodiac cycle through the centuries, your guardian angel!

Sunfaced

He missed all the throws and even if it was self-evident that he would smile
He wore his life's blessings and rushed all at once to the infinity's shining beauty!

Endless and unknown scenery but he being sunfaced and sun-taught Didn't miss his aim, he had it strongly Between his eyebrows, built, adorned!

The challenge was given, the signal was announced
He who defied the world, is magnified in the world.
